

36th International Symposium on Military Operational Research (36 ISMOR)

23-26 July 2019

Royal Holloway, University of London, Egham, Surrey, TW20 0EX, UK

ISMOR is an annual international symposium sponsored by the UK Ministry of Defence and offering a unique opportunity to spend four days exploring the application of analysis to practical issues in defence and security with a wide range of colleagues from across the world.

- Network with defence professionals from across the globe
- Discover the latest defence analysis techniques through
 - Presentations about analysis applied to real-world defence and security problems
 - Masterclasses and workshops from leading experts
 - A dynamic poster session
- Present your work in front of a respected audience

As well as inspiring experienced practitioners with new approaches and providing informal testing of ideas, ISMOR offers excellent development for early career analysts.

Themes for 2019 will include:

Expanding OR – hard situations requiring soft analysis (such as the Grey Zone). Taking uncertainty to a new level – and providing insights to tackle it.

Efficiency and value for money. How can we help decision makers do more with less?

Modelling and Simulation for military operations. What models do we need and how do we develop and use them?

Submit your abstract NOW for a presentation or poster on any aspect of the application of analysis to defence and security, particularly those relating to the symposium themes. We also welcome proposals for workshops.

Who should come to 36 ISMOR?

- Customers, practitioners and researchers from
 - Government departments
 - The Armed Forces
 - Industry
 - Academia

To book your place and submit your abstract, please use the online registration facility at www.ismor.com.
